Costumes!

Costumes?!? Yes,...costumes. Whether your production is a revue, drama, musical comedy or a full-fledged opera; costumes set the mood, the time frame and help the actors accurately portray the characters. Next to the actors themselves, there is little that is more important on stage than costumes.

Today, when budgets are tight...it makes sense to rent your show's costumes from SCHENZ THEATRICAL SUPPLY. Often the rental charges on beautiful, professionally-made costumes will be less than the cost of just the fabric and trim for home-made garments.

And you can rest easy...knowing that your wardrobe has been designed by our resident designer and experienced costume technicians. You can be certain that your wardrobe will be carefully co-ordinated to meet the requirements of your production.

Why not plan now to make your next production easier and more impressive? Call, fax or e-mail for more information regarding the costume requirements for your next show.
